“CNHA not only creates opportunities for diverse community leaders to convene, but to work together on common challenges.”

Alvin Parker, Ka Waihona o ka Na`auao PCS ~ CNHA Board Chairman

About CNHA

The Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement (CNHA) was formed in August 2001 to support community development organizations dedicated to Native Hawaiians and to convene annually around common challenges and solutions.

“CNHA provides a coordinated voice for us as community-based organizations, and supports our capacity needs to deliver our programs in Hawaii.”

Michelle Kauhane, Hawaiian Community Assets ~ CNHA Board Director

Our Mission

Our mission is to enhance the well-being of Hawaii through the cultural, economic and community development of Native Hawaiians. CNHA achieves its mission through policy advocacy, community convening, leadership development, grant training and intermediary services, and linking resources and solutions to community challenges.

“With a small dynamic team, CNHA provides crucial support services and partnerships that are immediately useful to community leaders and their organizations.”

Andrew Ah Po, Kanaka Maoli o Kaleponi ~ CNHA Board Director
