

NCSL

Native Hawaiian Program Community Session

REGISTRATION FORM

The National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL), working with the Hawaii State Legislature, is hosting community sessions statewide to identify the significance of Native Hawaiian programs in areas including but not limited to education, housing, economic development, culture, and other community development program areas.

Funding sources that come into Hawaii are important to all community members. Participate in a session with NCSL to provide information important to your family, community and organization.

Register today! These community session are sponsored by the National Conference of State Legislatures, a bipartisan organization that serves legislators and staffs of the nation’s 50 states, its commonwealths and territories, by providing research, technical assistance and opportunities for policymakers to exchange ideas on the most pressing state issues.
