

WHEELS UP IN 2 DAYS!

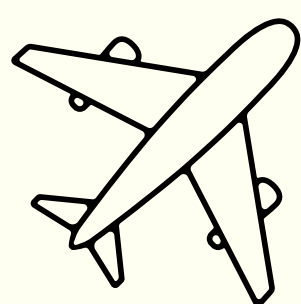

HUUUUU

CAN YOU FEEL IT?

In just two days we'll be strutting down that Southwest jet bridge together, boarding the fiercest charter flight this side of the Pacific — straight to Native Hawaiian Convention 2025.

And let me tell you gangy, this isn't just a flight... this is a production.

HERE'S YOUR GAME PLAN

- Departure: Sunday, October 5 at 8:00 a.m.
- Check-In Time: !! Due to possible delays with the government shutdown and the special check in process for the charter we are asking that you check in promptly between 5am and 5:30am !!
- Boarding Begins: 7:00 a.m. — don't leave me screaming your name on the loudspeaker 🗣️

At check-in, go through agriculture, then make your way over to the Hawaiian Council Welcome Table. That's where you'll get your:

- Boarding Passes
- Luggage Service
- And a double shot of aloha to get the party started. ✨Cheeeeering!✨

At the gate, the gorgeous Nā Lei Aloha dancers and musicians will lift our spirits — and yours truly, Mele Apana, serving first-flight-attendant realness — will be hosting games, prizes, mele, and maybe even a little gossip.

🔥 Need ADA curbside service?

Call (808) 590-7476 five minutes before you arrive and our porters will be ready to assist you.

Once wheels are up, prepare for hula, mele, games, exclusive collab Mākeke merch, 'ono bites, ice cold mea inus — and yes, even a chance to catch some beauty sleep before we land ready to SLAY convention week.

So pack your bags and pack your best smile — because this Sunday... we fly together. And it's gonna be LEGENDARY.

See you soon -
